Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies

Florence, 19 January 2026

Reference: V/RA/RSC/1/2026

Who we are

The Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies (RSCAS) is an inter-disciplinary research centre at the heart of the European University Institute (EUI). It was established in 1992 to complement the four EUI disciplinary departments (Economics, History and Civilization, Law, Political and Social Sciences) with the aim to be involved in both basic and policy research, collaborate with other centres of excellence in Europe, provide opportunities for young scholars and promote dialogue with the world of practice. The Centre's goal is to maintain an environment and support structure that fosters intellectual curiosity and excellent research. The research agenda of the Centre is currently guided by three major themes: Integration, Governance and Democracy; Regulating Markets and Governing Money; and 21st Century World Politics and Europe.

About the project

Project Director

Prof. Maarten Vink

Project details

The Global Citizenship Observatory (GLOBALCIT) is an online observatory committed to fact-based and nonpartisan analysis of citizenship laws and electoral rights around the world. We are a global research network based at the European University Institute as part of the Global Governance Programme at the Robert Schuman Centre. GLOBALCIT provides reliable and comparative data on the content, causes and consequences of the laws that govern the acquisition and loss of citizenship and the franchise. It enables scholars, policy-makers, and the general public to critically analyse how citizenship connects people across international borders.

Job description

The research assistant will support the Project Director in the updating and longitudinal extension of the GLOBALCIT Citizenship Law Dataset and back coding. Main tasks include:

- Identifying, interpreting and coding relevant provisions from national citizenship laws with regard to the conditions under which citizenship can be acquired and lost in a country;
- Consulting with GLOBALCIT national and regional experts regarding the interpretation of historical and current provisions in citizenship law.

More information on the Dataset can be found here.

Qualifications and experience

Qualifications and Experience

Essential:

- MA or equivalent in Law or related fields;
- Demonstrated experience in comparative legal research.

Desirable:

- Proven knowledge of nationality/citizenship law;
- Demonstrated skills in data management (e.g. in Excel) acquired through previous experience.

Languages

Excellent knowledge of English, both spoken and written (CEFR level: C1 or above). Knowledge of other languages constitutes an advantage.
